YAKOV FAIN

Getting Ready for Java Technical Interview

Yakov Fain is a Managing Principal of Farata Systems. He's responsible for the Enterprise Architecture and emerging technologies. Yakov authored several Java books, dozens of technical articles, and his blog at Java Developer Journal (<http://yakovfain.javadevelopersjournal.com/>) is hugely popular. Sun Microsystems has nominated and awarded Yakov with the title Java Champion. He leads the Princeton Java Users Group.

UP TO THE CHALLENGE?

Yakov will run a 10-minutes public job interview and conduct a quick analysis afterwards!

ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND AND ASK QUESTIONS!
